Membership Information

About us

Are you collecting the stamps and/or the postal history of St. Helena, Ascension and/or Tristan da Cunha? If so, find out about us here:

- Our Society was formed in 1976 and now has approximately 160 members in more than 20 countries of all ages and levels of experience.
- Our society is an affiliate society of the American Philatelic Society (APS)
- free exchange and purchase ads in the society journal, the South Atlantic Chronicle and on the Sales & Wants page of the society website
- a quarterly four-color society journal, the South Atlantic Chronicle
- free membership in 12 Special Interest Groups (SIGS), and the Facebook group
- books and DVDs with all society publications between 1976 and 2015, together with an up-to-date online index of every article published in the South Atlantic Chronicle
- you can buy and offer island-related items whenever one of the society auctions takes place
- you can choose between a paper or a paperless membership

What does it cost to be there?

Currently, an annual membership costs $29 (USA/Canada) or $34 (International). The paperless membership costs $15 (worldwide)

You will be welcome in our society.

Communication between members

Members can meet and exchange ideas online with exclusive access to:

- 12 Special Interest Groups
- membership in the SHATPS Facebook group

Special Interest Groups (SIGs) exist for you to take part in discussions around your particular collecting interest, and to facilitate being in close contact with like-minded members. You can use an application form on our website to join. The listing of the 12 SIGS you find here: www.shatps.org/sp-interest-groups.html

The South Atlantic Chronicle

In our society journal, the South Atlantic Chronicle, where you can post, cost-free, your spare items, you can post your requests, or your wants. And, if you want to write an article about a collected item, a special topic, or other island-related things, please get in contact with our editor, John Coyle, editor@shatps.org or use his postal address.

The South Atlantic Chronicle is free for download to all members on the society website (NB SHATPS members only. For the access you will get a username and password).

Membership Directory

Another important link between the members is the annual Membership directory, in which a list of members is published (where consent to publish has been given).
